GOVERNOR'S PROPOSED 2001-2002 STATE BUDGET

ROBERT M. HERTZBERG

SPEAKER OF THE ASSEMBLY

TONY CARDENAS, CHAIR

ASSEMBLY BUDGET COMMITTEE

Highlights: Governor's Proposed 2001-2002 State Budget

REVENUES

- State General Fund revenues for the current year and the budget year are projected to be $76.9 billion and $79.4 billion, respectively, which represents a 3.3 percent budget year growth over the current year. General Fund revenues for both years are significant increases over the estimates used to enact the 2000 Budget Act, which project current year revenues to be $73.9 billion.
- The Governor proposes a General Fund Reserve of $1.9 billion, or 2.4 percent of General Fund Revenues. In addition, the Governor proposes a $500 million reserve set-aside for legal contingencies.
- The General Fund figures do not include Tobacco Settlement Funds ($468 million), which the Governor proposes to create a special fund to dedicate these revenues to health care expansion programs.

ENERGY

SET-ASIDE

- Includes a $1 billion General Fund set-aside for programs that will increase energy efficiency, reduce energy consumption, and increase energy supply. The budget indicates that specific proposals will be developed in consultation with the Legislature at the beginning of the current legislative session.

Energy Commission

- $7.5 million for the purchase and use of clean, efficient vehicles for departments within the Resources Agency and $2 million to fund the California Fuel Cell Partnership for Phase 3 of a multi-year transit bus demonstration program that will provide additional fueling facilities to accommodate new fuel cell buses.
- $1.1 million to conduct market development and identify barriers to the advancement of ethanol production from biomass resources.
- $3.2 million to conduct consumer characteristics surveys of residential, commercial, and industrial customers and to obtain consumer supply and demand information.
- $2.5 million to update, develop, and carry out energy efficiency measures and provide information to local government planners about energy efficient urban planning methods.
- $3.1 million and 7 positions for expedited power plant siting review workload.
- $1 million to continue a solar energy and distributed generation system grant program.

Public Utilities Commission

- $2.7 million and 24.2 personnel years of staff to support the Governor's Clean Energy Green Team, expedite power plant siting procedures, remove transmission congestion, increase electricity conservation, and review generation procedures of the Independent System Operator.

EDUCATION K-12

The budget proposes a $3.2 billion increase in K-12 Proposition 98 spending (two-year total). This amount includes $1.4 billion for a 3.9 percent cost-of-living adjustment, $463 million for enrollment growth, approximately $500 million for adjustments related to statutory requirements and litigation and approximately $700 million for new initiatives. The Governor proposes total Proposition 98 spending at a "test 2" level that is $1.9 billion more than the minimum level of spending required by law. On a per-pupil basis, Proposition 98 funding is $7,174, an increase of $866 over last year. The proposed budget includes:

- $1.45 billion over the next three years to expand the school year for middle schools. This new program would provide middle schools with $770 per student for expanding their school year by 30 days, from the existing 180 days to 210 days. The proposal would cost $100 million in the budget year, and increase to an ongoing cost of $900 million by the third year.

- $830 million over three years to train all 252,000 of the state's teachers involved in math and reading and 22,000 instructional aides. This proposal would cost $335 million for each of the first two years and $160 million in the third year. School districts could develop their own training programs if based on University of California criteria and approved by the State Board of Education. School districts would receive $2,500 per teacher trained and $1,000 per instructional aide. The budget also contains a $10 million increase to allow 10,000 additional teachers to attend the UC professional development institutes.
- $123 million to increase funding for an existing program that rewards schools for making significant improvements in student test scores. The budget also includes an increase of $21.5 million to fully fund the cost of assistance to low-performing schools under the Public School Accountability Act.
- A 50 percent tax credit for employers who lend their employees to teach math and science in public schools. The cost of this proposal is $1 million in lower revenues.
- $30 million for a new program to help schools attract algebra teachers. The program would provide schools with between $50 and $100 per each student taking algebra. Schools could use this money to provide salary incentives, lower class size, teacher training or additional help for students who are behind in math.
- $15 million for a new leadership training program to train all of California's principals and vice-principals in academic standards, leadership skills and education technology. The Governor proposes to train all 15,000 school-site administrators in the state over the next three years through locally developed training programs approved by the State Board of Education. The state would provide $3,000 for each principal trained, with a local match requirement of $1,000.
- $20 million in incentive funding for schools to purchase or develop software to analyze data from the state testing system. The budget also includes $5 million for an incentives-based system to monitor student-level scores, and $27.5 million for student workbooks for the high school exit and STAR exams.
- $5 million for a new Math and Science Challenge Grant program for public-private partnerships to increase at-risk students' interest in math and science careers.
- $395 million to pay for a legal settlement between the state and school districts over the cost of special education mandates. This amount includes $270 million in one-time funds, $100 million in ongoing funding and $25 million as part of a plan to provide $250 million over 10 years. The budget also includes $97.9 million in permanent increases to the base funding level for special education programs.
- $20 million in half-year costs to expand an existing after school program in middle schools.
- $20 million in one-time funds to create high-tech high schools.
- $10 million in one-time funds for equipment for regional occupational centers and programs, which provide vocational education.

- $5 million to expand the Academic volunteer and Mentor Service Program to a funding level of $15 million.
- $16.5 million for California School Information Services, a long-term project to transfer electronic copies of student records between schools.
- $13.9 million to implement a new Kindergarten Readiness Pilot Program approved last year, which provides funding to school districts that raise their minimum entry age by three months and provide school readiness instruction to pre-kindergarten students.
- $53.8 million in one-time funding for the Child Care Facilities Revolving Loan Fund for the purchase and renovation of child care facilities.
- $5.4 million to help compensate child care and development contractors for increased costs related to an increase in the minimum wage.

- $11 million to assist districts with ensuring that all eligible students have access to Cal Grants.
- $143.6 million from general obligation bonds for Community College capitol outlay projects, including $122.3 million for completion of 53 previously approved projects at 43 campuses and $21 million to fund 23 new major projects at 19 campuses.

California State University

The Governor's proposed 2001-02 State Budget includes a total of $2.46 billion for the California State University (CSU), an increase of $215.9 million or 8.8 percent over the revised current year budget. The Governor's major proposals for CSU include:

- $93.5 million for a 4 percent general fund increase, of which $81.5 million will be used for a 4 percent faculty salary increase.
- $68 million to support enrollment growth of 8,760 full-time equivalent students, including $12.3 million to support 3,138 full-time equivalent students as part of an expansion of State-supported summer instruction at four additional CSU campuses.
- $23.4 million for core needs in technology infrastructure build-out, increasing access for networking services for students, faculty and staff, expansion of electronic library resources, campus libraries and deferred maintenance.
- $17.5 million to fully fund 1,000 annual the Governor's Teacher Fellowship Program, a multi-year initiative to provide nonrenewable graduate teaching fellowships to prospective teachers who agree to teach in under-performing schools after attaining their teaching credentials.
- $18.5 million to fully fund the Governor's Education Technology Professional Development Program which provides teacher development and administrator training in the use of technology in the classroom to improve student performance.
- $207 million from general obligation bonds for capital outlay projects including $103.6 million for CSU to complete 13 previously approved projects at 12 campuses, $96.6 million to allow CSU to address 14 major new projects at 11 campuses, and $6.7 million for minor projects.

University of California

The Governor's proposed 2001-02 State Budget includes a total of $3.4 billion for the University of California (UC), an increase of $202.5 million or 6.3 percent over the revised current year budget. The Governor's major proposals for UC include:

- $52.2 million to support enrollment growth of 5,700 full-time equivalent students and $20.7 million to fund 3,422 full-time equivalent students for State-supported summer instruction at three UC campuses.
- $20 million in one-time funds for deferred maintenance, instructional equipment and library materials.
- $203.3 million from bond funds for capital outlay projects at UC, which includes six projects for which construction has already been approved, support for construction or design completion for 11 projects, as well as initial or continuing design on 15 projects.
- $160.4 million for the construction of the first two buildings and initial drawings for a third building on the UC Merced campus.

Financial Aid

- $128 million augmentation for the California Student Aid Commission to provide a projected 25,226 new financial aid awards to needy students, consistent with SB 1644 which created the Cal Grant Entitlement program.

SOCIAL SERVICES

The Governor's proposed 2001-02 State Budget for social services includes CalWORKs, Child Welfare Services, In-Home Supportive Services, Child Support, Community-Based Senior Programs, and Drug/Alcohol Treatment Programs. The following summarizes some of the major budget proposals for 2001-02.

- $153 million savings for CalWORKs Maintenance of Effort incentives payments.
- $7 billion to fully fund the estimated costs for the CalWORKs program in 2001-02. This includes $1.2 billion to provide child care services and $109 million to provide substance abuse and mental health services.
- $2.8 million allocated to Indian Health Clinics to provide mental health and substance abuse services for Native Americans.
- $128.3 million to provide an October 2001 statutory welfare COLA of 4.85 percent. A grant for a family of three living in a high-cost county would increase from $645 to $676 per month.
- Statutory state COLA of 4.85 percent for Supplemental Security Income/State Supplementary Program (SSI/SSP) grants. The budget also includes federal funding for a federal COLA. A single aged or disabled adult would receive $747 per month, beginning January 1, 2002.
- $97.6 million provided for the Cash Assistance Program for Immigrants. This program provides state-only SSI/SSP benefits to certain legal non-citizens who lost eligibility due to federal welfare reform.
- $95.7 million reduction in General Fund for the state share-of-cost (65 percent of nonfederal costs) above the minimum wage for public authority wages for providers in the In-Home Supportive Services program. This reduction is largely due to several counties negotiating PA wage rates at levels lower than the maximum rates in which the State would participate.
- $124.9 million to continue support for county Child Welfare Services workers who respond to reports of abuse and neglect.
- $1.9 million to continue efforts to raise the level of long-term care seniors are receiving in nursing homes.
